Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Comptek PRB, Inc., of Hollywood, Maryland is being awarded an Indefinite-Delivery, Indefinite-Quantity, Cost-Plus-Fixed-Fee type contract in the amount of $5,688,238 for engineering activities for software development, software design, procurement, fabrication, configuration, software installation, integration, logistics, maintenance and life cycle support functions for various command, control, communication, computers, intelligence and surveillance requirements (C4ISR), programs, projects and, Foreign Military Sales. This is for a follow on effort, which originally was for support of the Tactical Support Center and Tactical Support Center Communications Module, Mobile-Miniature Operations Control Center, C4I Systems Division related systems and associated Foreign Military Sales programs. Work will be accomplished at the contractor's facility and SPAWAR System Center facilities at Lexington Park, Maryland (78%) and Charleston (22%). This contract combines purchases for the U.S. Navy (70% ) and the governments of various countries, including but not limited to Saudi Arabia, Korea, Norway and Canada (30% ) under the Foreign Military Sales program. The period of performance for the base year is December 2000 through November 2001. This contract contains four one-year options, which, if exercised, will bring the total cumulative value of the contract to $29,750,998. The contract is funded with Operations and Maintenance Navy, Other Procurement Navy, Research Development, Test & Evaluation, Foreign Military Sales and other sources. Initial obligations are from Navy Working Capital funds that expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was procured on a competitive basis with the solicitation posted on the SPAWAR Business Opportunities Web page and one offer received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston is the contracting activity (N65236-01-D-6813).
